

Our Philosophy

The Lou and Gib Reese Ice Arena staff and Instructors understand that your child comes to us with unique experiences, learning styles, and interests.

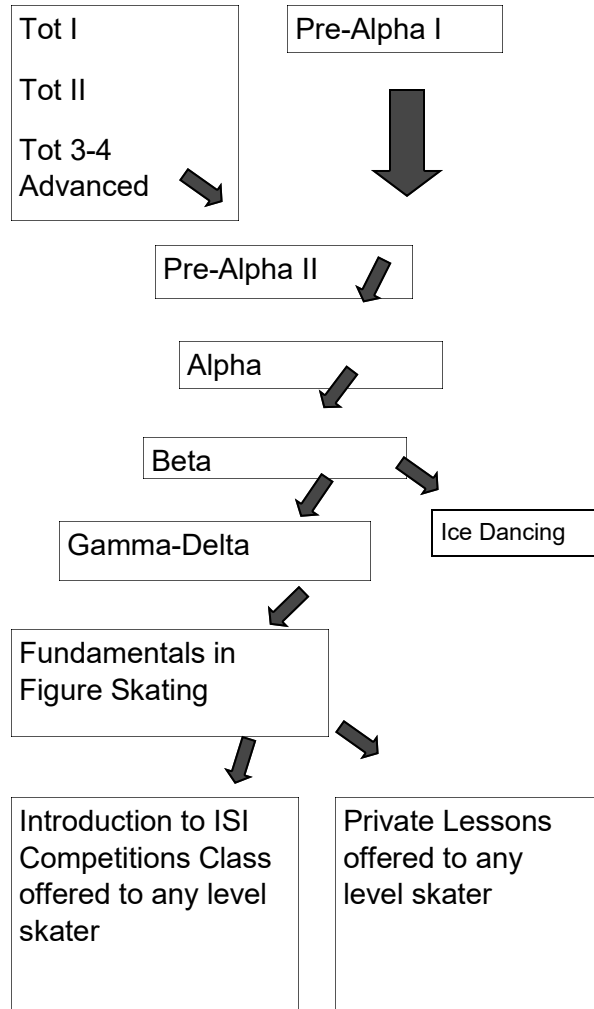

Our goal is to get to know each child and use this knowledge to teach, guide, and support him or her.

We believe that good teaching requires continual professional development, personal reflection, and collaboration

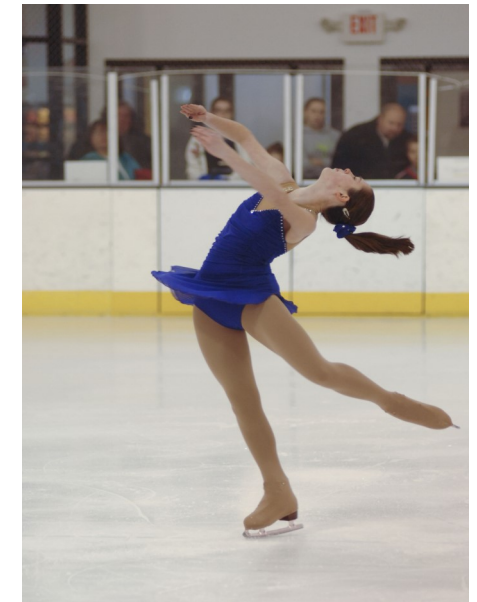

Our Instructors and staff value parental involvement and encourage parents to partner with our team to give your child the most rewarding and FUN learning experience possible

Your path to skating success starts here using the

What is Freestyle

The

LOU & GIB REESE ICE ARENA offers specialized practice sessions for figure skaters called freestyle sessions.

These sessions are limited to 25 skaters on a first-come, first served basis.

These sessions are open to those skaters who have passed the ISI Alpha test or higher, or are having a private lesson.

Private lessons are available from staff coaches; guest coaches must seek prior approval from the Skating Director and adhere to our guest coach policy.

Daily Admission $4.00 / 15 minutes session

What is the Cost?

Fifteen Session punch card $55.00

Thirty Session punch card $100.00

Fifty Session punch card $150.00

(The punch card is broken into 15 minute increments)

When are Freestyle sessions Offered?

HOURS ARE SUBJECT TO CHANGE

UP-TO- DATE INFORMATION.

Rules for Freestyle Sessions

Skaters may not skate or behave in any manner that might endanger themselves or any other person.

Headphones are not allowed on the ice.

Skaters are allowed to play their music ~ one time per 15 minutes.

Instructors have first priority to use the music system for skaters in a lesson.

Backward Spirals and Arabesques, "Beilman's" or Blade Grabbers may not be practiced unless a spotter is used.

Skaters are to fill their own holes made by toe-picks.

Check in Procedure

All skaters must sign in at the Pro-Shop prior to taking the Ice. Please pick up your pass at that time. Failure to do so may result in loss of skating privileges.

Admission stickers must be visible while on the ice.

All skaters must have a signed waiver on file at the Pro-Shop.
